Fashion doesn't slow down to ask
how you're doing.

On camera or off,
the pressure doesn't stop.

If the pace has left you running on empty, BioChakra invites you to stop, privately, with no audience and no schedule built for someone else.

Burnt out? Overextended?
It's time to reset.

Brought directly to you, at your hotel or villa in Mallorca.

WHY WE UNDERSTAND YOU?

Because we come from fashion ourselves and know your world from the inside.

Myonghwi spent more than two decades in fashion photography between New York and Paris.

Gabrielle spent decades in Paris as a fashion and textile designer for major high-end international labels.

Celia Ingesson designed for major global brands and forecast runway trends for decades before founding Greeningline.

Maren also spent two decades in fashion styling in Germany.

They know the pressure and expectations.

Here you have nothing to explain and no one to perform for.
